Corporate Real Estate
9.30am - Q&A Session
9.50am - Coffee

Graham Chilver is a senior Director with Barclays where his career has spanned over 35 years in London Corporate Banking.

The last 25 years have been focussed solely on the Real Estate Market where Graham has been involved in many landmark commercial financings and is particularly well known for his experience with the London Residential development sector. He is based in Barclays Real Estate Group based in Canary Wharf.

Graham will be giving us an insight into the challenges the Banking Markets face going forward and the effect this will have for Borrowers. He will also provide his views on the future for Real Estate financing, the opportunities and threats this will bring, and the particular difficulties being faced by those Property Companies involved in Development.
